
Are you worried about your future?

*Are you worried
that you do not have the relevant skills to be employed?*

*Are you worried
that you cannot find a suitable job
after you completed your studies?*

Come and join this seminar and we will help you to boost the confidence and self-esteem in you.

It is a fact that many of graduates in Malaysia are unemployed or have difficulties looking for suitable employment. Currently, more than one third (1/3) of graduates in Malaysia are jobless.

Don't add to the statistics!

Join the seminar on

'Empowering character and enhancing employability'

16th December 2009,

11 a.m. to 12 p.m.

At Pathways Training and Education

*56B, Jalan Desa Bakti, Taman Desa Town Centre,
Jalan Kelang lama,
Kuala Lumpur
03 - 7982 3441*

Speakers' profile

Dr. Tan Seng Teck is an avid educator. He graduated with a Bachelor of Laws from the University of London (LLB) in 1998 and earned a Master in Business Administration (MBA) in 2001 from the University of Leicester. In 2004, he was awarded PhD in International Business from the accredited University of Newcastle. Dr. Tan also earned a Masters in Criminal Justice from the University of Malaya in 2008. He is also currently pursuing his second PhD from the accredited Nueva Ecija University of Science and Technology (Philippines) (He was awarded full scholarship for the programme). Dr. Tan has indulged in education as a senior lecturer for the past six years and has published many papers in law and presented papers in conferences.

Objectives of seminar

Throughout the tenure of his service, he noticed that paper qualification will not automatically guarantee employment. He realised that many students lack essential skills that most employers are looking for. Character is the primary element that distinguishes between candidates that are valued from another that has lesser value. Students should transpire beyond merely students but should be encourage to hone their skills at this early stage. The objective of the seminar is to 'awaken' the hidden talents in you. Come and join this seminar and you will be imprinted upon an experience that you will not forget for the rest of your life!